SENIOR INDEX 210

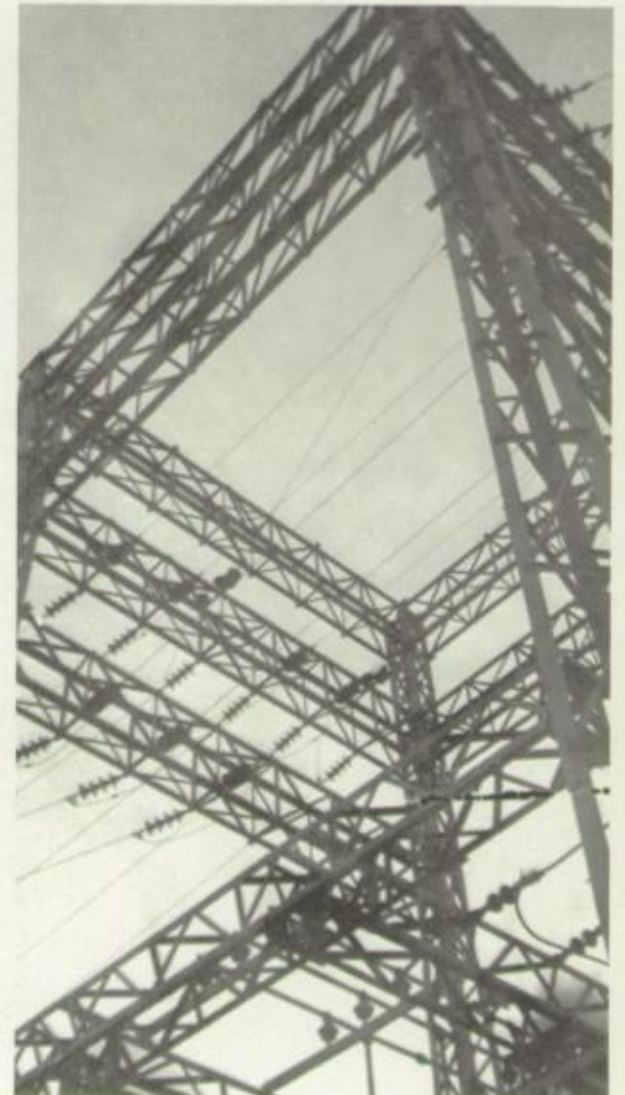

There is a community to which everyone belongs regardless of race, creed, or color.

Lorain is a melting pot of the nation

... where everyone works together for the welfare of the community.

Lorain High School, our own microcosm, gives evidence to the fact that nationality presents no barrier to friendship.

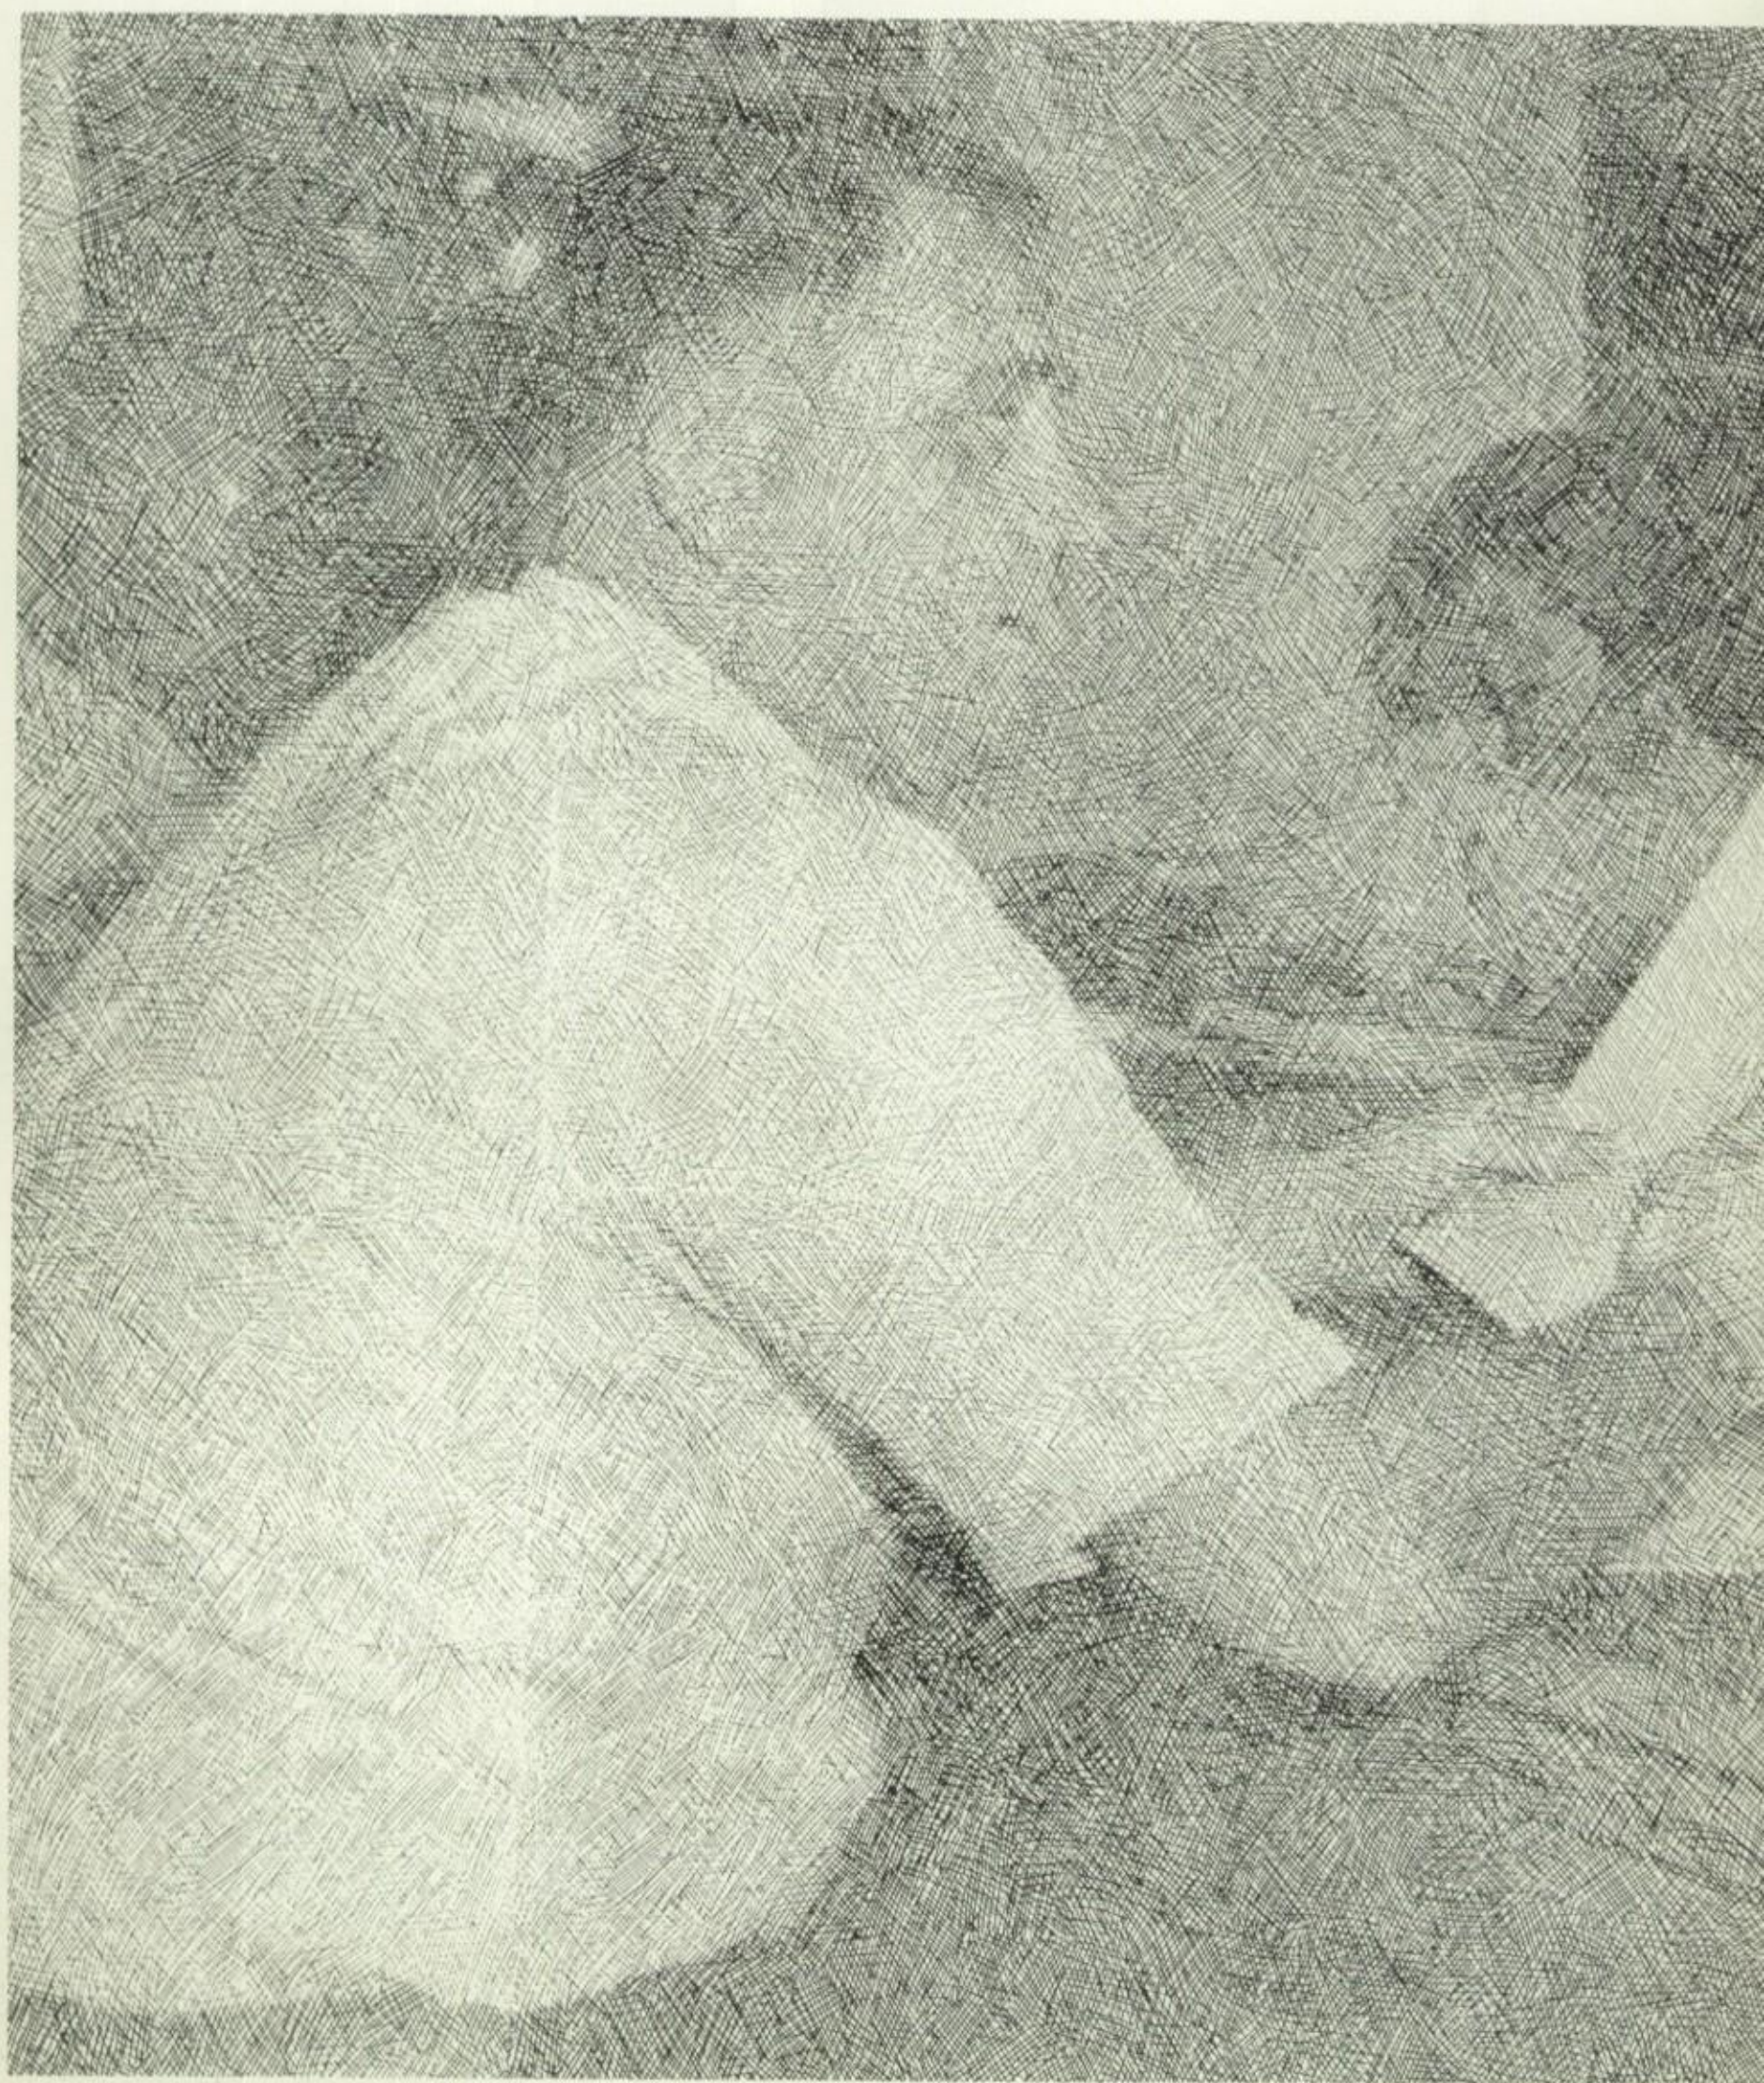

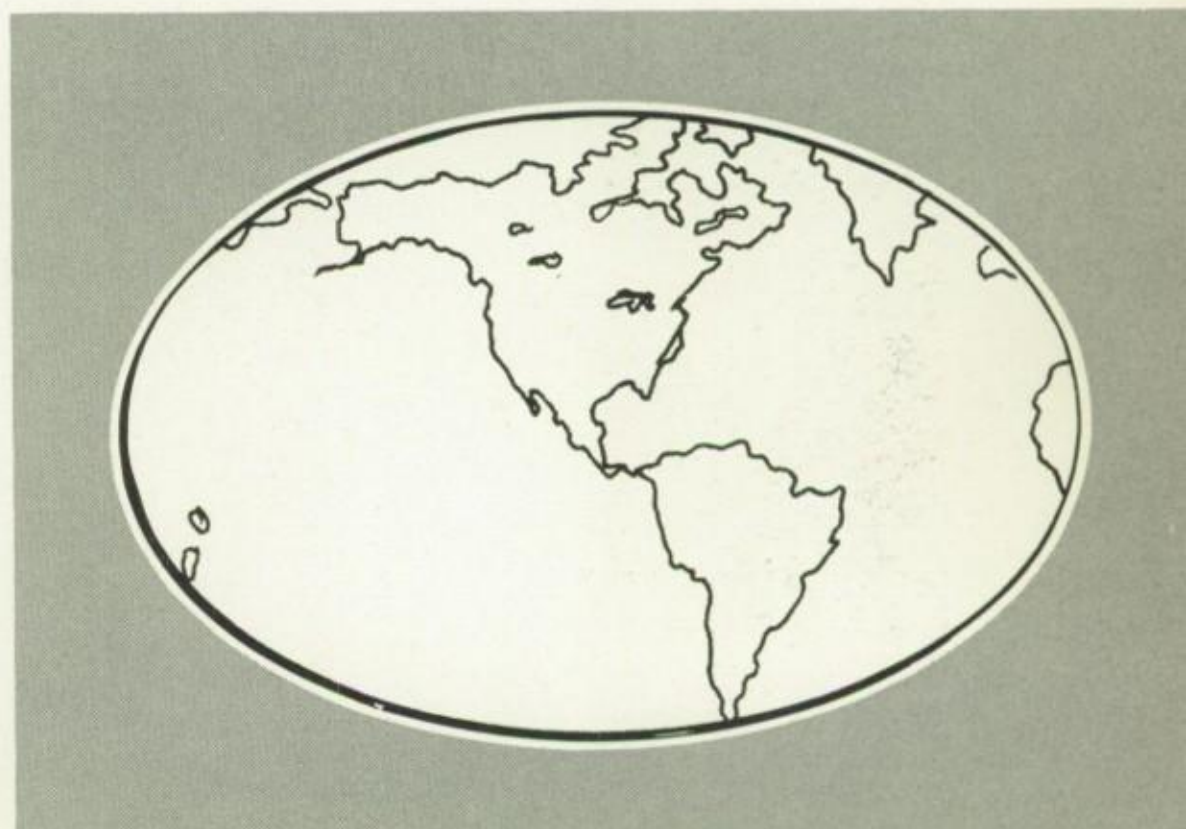

Regardless of nationality, the degree of maturity and knowledge gained is left to the individual

After all, the kind of world one carries about in oneself is the important thing, and the world outside takes all its grace, color, and value from that.

—James Russell Lowell

FACULTY

DR. CALTA, Superintendent of Lorain City Schools

SUPERINTENDENT AND BOARD OF EDUCATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Dr. Jack Mercer, Mr. Harry Evans, Mr. Charles Ellis, Mr. Ralph Brookes, Mr. Milton Tomasek

In this year of indecision, protest marches and demonstrations, I feel compelled to compliment the student who is in search of peace and harmony in the world through respect for law and order, love for fellow man, and study for greater knowledge.

It is not easy to be an uncommon man in today's society of following the crowd. But, you are well aware that this great United States was built by the unusual men who worked harder, studied longer and created new and daring ideas, trends and territories with respect and admiration for each other.

May you go forth into the community trying to unite, build, and create greatness in the new challenges which face you.

Good luck to each of you upon completion of your high school education.

Principal of Lorain High, PHILIP W. RYAN

PRINCIPAL

There is a need for teaching the worth and individual dignity of man. Failure to face the realities of the present—that only one-fourth of the world's population is white; that two-thirds of the world's population are non-christian; that one-half of the world's population lives under communism—prevents many students from discovering lasting values. I sincerely hope our students will fully comprehend the dreams and hopes that man has for himself and thus find meaning and purpose in life.

Mr. Ryan plays an important part in graduation ceremonies.

Mr. Ryan presents award at assembly.

Mr. Ryan rolls up his sleeves and helps decorate for the prom.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Most students agree that Mr. Aten is a "Great Guy." Of course, he is stern when he needs to be, but he will help you with your problems if he can, and most of the time, he is great fun; how you see him depends on your behavior.

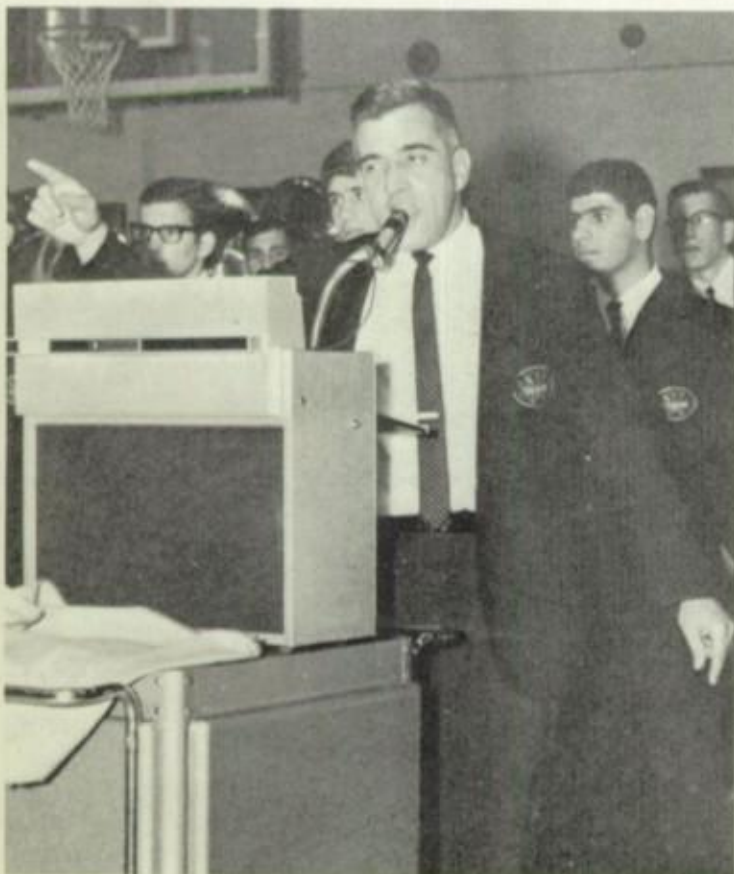

This MR. ATEN means business!

Mr. Aten talks over problems.

The commanding Mr. Aten.

COUNSELORS

In addition to counseling and scheduling over 2000 students during the school year, counselors help seniors select colleges, talk with parents, visit classrooms to lecture students about planning for the future, and handle numerous details involving students and the courts.

MRS. PEYTON talks with a parent.

MRS. LEIMBACH helps a student select a college.

"Do you understand?"

"No, I don't know what I'm doing either."

"My tree will have big, juicy apples."

This year seventy-one members of the Class of '68 were added to the National Honor Society. These were chosen on the basis of their scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. No one of these qualifications can be considered the most important one. All four combine to form an exemplary citizen who will be a tribute to the Society now and in future years.

Juniors Are Important.

They play football with the mighty seniors; they wrestle, run cross-country, and track, play in the band, look pretty, and study hard. They also goof-off, and do everything else the seniors do except graduate this year.

There are 475 students in the class of '69. For 33 we had no pictures. Sorry.

CLASS OF '70

The Sophomores Are Go-Getters

There are 600 sophomores this year and you'll find them everywhere.

They work on the Scimitar Staff. Tom Molnar draws lay-out mats.

Students dramatize play in Mr. Linscott's class.

They run Cross-Country.

They are members of the band.

They enjoy panel discussions. (This one in Mrs. Litter's class has stopped for a commercial.)

They work in concessions.

CLASS OF '71

Freshmen Are Fabulous

There are more of them than of anyone else—a full 650—and once they've learned their way around, they find that there is plenty to do. Freshmen have their own football team featured in the sports section of the Simitar; they take part in many other sports. They are full of life and keep the school buzzing.

They went that-a-way.

Fire bell? No—dismissal bell.

Future Steelmen.

Somebody has the big-head.

Freshmen bowled against the teachers.

Pete, Kurt Zollinger, Mr. Roth, Mrs. Roth, George, Nancy.

Kurt Zollinger of Switzerland came to Lorain and Lorain High School in August 1967. Through the combined efforts of American Field Service Student and Adult Organization, it was possible for him to attend classes all year and be graduated with the Class of 1968 before returning to his home in June. Kurt commented that he has enjoyed his stay very much and that it will be very difficult to leave his friends and American family whose friendships he will always treasure.

Vocational Clubs are active socially. They have dances, bake-sales, and car-washes; they sang carols at hospitals and gave a party for a group of orphans during the Christmas season.

Activities are climaxed with a banquet for all clubs, COE, and employers of COE students.

VOCATIONAL CLUBS

We have four new clubs in our school, two Vocational Clerical and two Vocational Steno. Activities of these clubs are usually related to that of Vocational Education classes.

During class—three-hour classes for juniors and four-hour classes for seniors—students are trained for office positions.

As seniors the girls go into the COE program, and many go directly from high school into good jobs in the business world. Some choose to continue their education at college or business school.

THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th

This year's presentation by the Dramatic Arts Club was something unusual. The auditorium became a courtroom and part of its audience became the jury. The fate of Karen Andre rested in the hands of the Superintendent of Schools, president of the Board of Education, a Lorain Journal staff writer, businessmen and similar community figures. Both attorneys were dynamic and persuasive but the trial concluded with a verdict of not-guilty, fortunately for defense attorney Stevens and his client.

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

The story of Annie Oakley, queen of the western sharpshooters, was brought to life by the A Capella Choir. From the red-faced Indians and circus clowns, to the dancing cow-girls and beautiful music, the performance was greeted with great enthusiasm by audiences which filled the house in spite of severe ice-storms and blizzards, the worst weather of the winter.

The singing was, as usual, superb; the acting, excellent. A highlight of the musical was the Indian dance led by Tom Williams.

An outstanding defensive unit was the keynote to a successful '67 campaign. This unit was most impressive against Lakewood, Admiral King, and Sandusky.

Offensively, the Lorain yearlings had speed, size, and poise.

A decent aerial attack was balanced by a swift running game.

Highlight offensively was the special PAT unit which became famous in the Sandusky game.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The 1968 Varsity Cheerleaders of LHS were among Ohio's finest. At the Kent State Cheerleading Clinic, they captured three first place awards and one second place award in varied competition. Also secured was the coveted "Spirit Stick" for outstanding congeniality and spirit. Captained by three-year veteran, Val McConihe, the squad cheered LHS through its most successful sports season in recent years.

JV

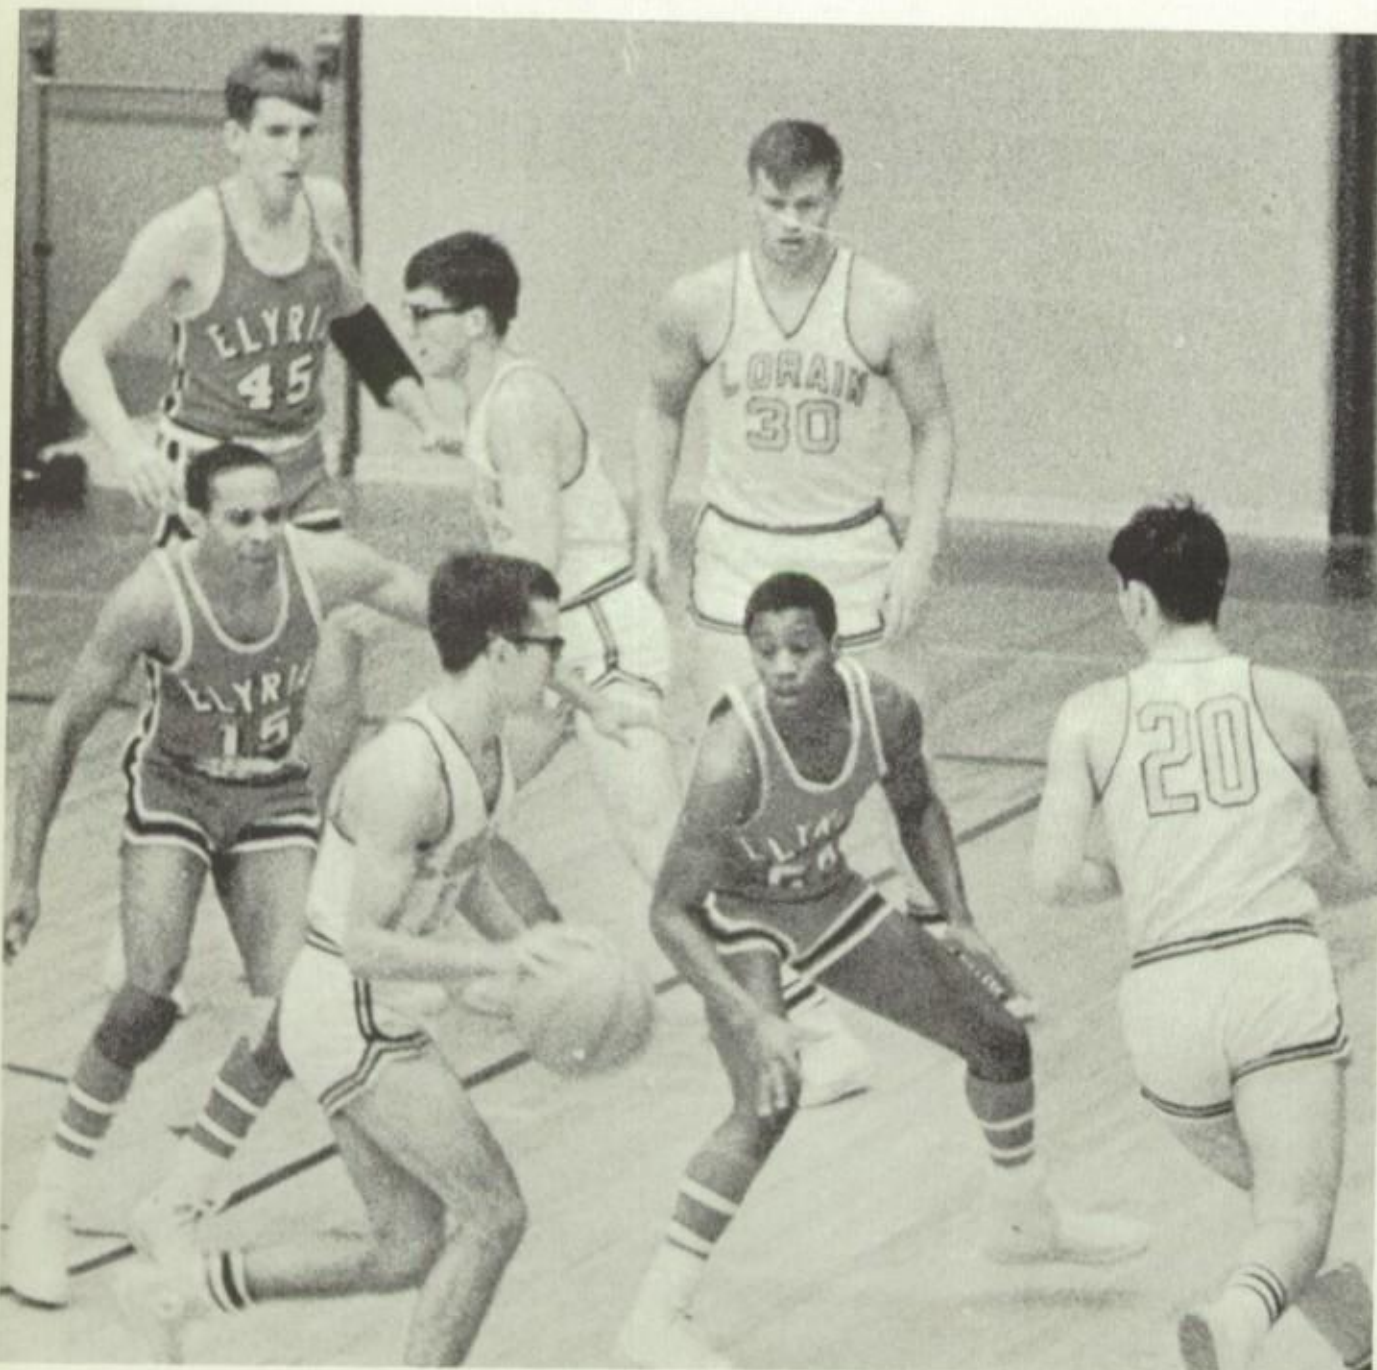

This year's Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, captained by Marty Smith, displayed fine spirit and precision. Their constant cheering sparked the Junior Varsity teams to excellent records. The unseen hours of hard work and frustrations mold them into a working unit which was evident throughout the year.

And down

This year's basketball team was Lorain High's best for a decade. They did not have any men of unusual height and there were no individual stars, but through great teamwork they took second place in the Buckeye Conference and went to the finals in Sectional Tournament play.

Highlights of the year, victories over Admiral King and Elyria.

The 1968 Tennis Team had a fine season. The team record of 12 and 5 was highlighted by excellent individual efforts. Ken Parks, the number one man, placed second in the districts held in Elyria. The number one doubles team of Craig Looney and Jim Griesser won the Buckeye Conference Doubles Championship and they were District Champions. They were defeated in the second round of the state tournament. An excellent group of underclassmen including David Tressel, Eric Holliman, Joe Veroni, and Doug Ego, are expected to boost the team to another winning season next year.
